A Neatly Arranged Effort to Keep the Cleveland Scandal Alive Indefinitely,

Special dispatch to The Bee: BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 15 .- The Evening Telegraph says: A citizen of Buffalo gained me and finally made my acquaintance. I was not as atout as I look now, being tall and to connect the dead Oscar Folsom with me or my boy, of which I hear, is cruel and cowardly. It does not seem possible after all I suffered for [Cleveland and my boy's sake that the attempt should be made to blacken me in the eyes of the world. No one knows the extent of my sufferings. After my child was taken from me, I begged Cleveland on was taken from me, I begged Cleveland on my knees to let me have a sight of my baby He was immovable. I found where the boy was, and one day Ijrushed in before his keeper, snatched him up and ran away before they could stop me. My suffering subsequently, my fruitless efforts to have him fulfill his promise of marriage, his neglect of myself and child, my abductions and violent treatment of his hired tools, are truthfully but only partially told in The Buffalo Telegraph of July told i tially told in The Buffalo Telegraph of July 21. It would be impossible to cover the events that made up those years of shame, suffering and degredation forced upon me by Governor Cleveland." The Telegraph says it has her attested statement to this effect. When told it was reported she had made or was about to make a statement exonerating Cleveland from the charge. Washinton Special to Chicago Times. Congressman Gibson, of West Virginia, arrived to-day. His business here is to arrange dates with Carlisle and Blackburn for their contemplated speeches in his district, and see the committee about sending a big supply of campaign documents to his state. He says the feeling in the state is most intense. The effort of Blains's managers to carry the state has aroused everyone. At public meetings where he has spoken he says he has met old men who tell him that they have not attended an audience with Maria Halpin as the bearer of a message from a friend, and received from her this statement: "I was employed at Flint the state is to bribe and corrupt voters, and & Kintz when Cleveland persistently sought the feeling against Elkins is so great that it would probably be unsafe for him to show himself in the state. Hazen Doubts the Truth of the Stories -Greely Returns Home from Ris Trip.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., August 15.-The mos eartrending disclosures were made in this city yesterday regarding the remains of Lieutenant Kislingbury, of the Arctic expedition, who died amid the Arctic snow last June. It is established beyond all question that cann balism was resorted to by the starving men o the Greely expedition, and shows that the lives of these saved were preserved only by eating the dead bodies of their companions Lieutenant Kislingbury's relatives here were filled with horrible doubts as soon as the learned that disclosures had been made in New York regarding cannibalism among the members of the expedition, and they determined to learn the truth by exhuming the remains and have them examined by competent physicians. The services of an undertaker united on their candidates and will present a solid front.

Those fears are varranted from the preminence and influence among Cubans of Gomez and Macco, who have been identified with the present move-ment toward Cuban independence since its inauguration. It is asserted positively that their object in coming here is to be in speedy communication with certain Creole politicians of Havana, whose aim now is to stir the feelings of an uprising crowd. Others believe that the exitement occasioned among the Cuban population here by the presence of these lead-ers will promise the committment of overt acts which will disrupt the good feeling now existing, and promote a quarrel between this country and Spain. In either event serious troubles are apprehended by all officials here.

Special Dispatch to THE BER. Chicago, August 15,-The markets ruled easier again to-day, with the exception of provisions, which were again exceptionally strong.

At one time October wheat sold at 79%, but closed a shade firmer in the late board trading setts man. Possibly by a blessing of God and the votes of the people, a chief executive might be found who would improve matters. Ireland was growing in strength in this country and in a few years would be able to say, "Thus far shalt thou do and no farther."

"Thus far shalt thou do and no farther." Mayor Matten and Mrs. Parnell made short addresses. Sexton spoke of the great enthusiasm with which this demonstration would be heard in Ireland and outlined the situation in the trade in this city. The ever known in the trade in this city. The receipts show a slight falling off. The weak-ness late in the day was attributed partially to a report from Milwaukee, which placed the estimate on the present wheat crop much larger than was heretofore estimated. The report was not official, but had its effect. In a general way. The latest quotations were 76% for August; 78½ September; 80½ October; 81%

> The receipts of hogs showed a falling off of nearly 5,000 but there were stale hogs enough nearly 5,000 but there were stale hogs enough to bring the supply up to fully 26,000. There was a good demand from several classes of buyers and the market made a further gain in strength. The opening sales showed an ad-vance of 5c, and that improvement was main-tained to the close, peor to best light making 5.70 to 6.49, and inferior mixed to choice heavy gains at 5.60 to 6.40. It was reported heavy going at 5 60 to 6 40. It was reported that 6 50 had been paid but the particulars did not transpire. The sales of skips and culls ran from 4 00 to 5 00. Sorting was not as close as usual, and the shrinking was also remarkably light.

Canadian Crops.

TORONTO, August 15.—According to the supplementary report of the bureau of industries for August, a good harvest of grain crops in Ontario is assured. Fall wheat gives aver-age yields 27%, spring wheat, 18½ bushels p e age yields 274, spring wheat, 162 bushels Peacre. The aggregate productions exceeds Las year's harvest by ten and a half millien bushels. Barley is a good crop in the southern countries, but the northern and northeastern is affected by summer drought. The grain, though, is plump and heavy.
